Information, support and training in ageing advocacy
To this end the AFE-Activists project will work on:

- Designing and testing of a non-formal learning curriculum based on the analysis of the state-of-the-art European and global grass-roots initiatives of older people's activism.

- Project-based learning enabling older age (65+) learners to find the most effective methods to translate the promising idea of age-friendly environment into effective action on the local level.

- Organising transnational learning mobilities giving the opportunity to selected participants to gain first-hand experience of age-friendly environment in The Hague (The Netherlands) and Udine (Italy).

OUTCOMES

- Compendium of good AFE-activism practices focused on grass-roots initiatives
- AFE Advocacy Handbook covering the training curriculum and local activities, experiences gained in learning mobilities and interesting local activities realised by AFE activists.
- AFE Experience Handbook raising awareness of age-friendly environments, presenting good practice examples and showcasing age-friendly cities as skills gaining destination for AFE activists.

AIMS

The overall objective of AFE Activists is to support and train older adults who want to promote and foster age-friendly environments in their cities and communities and to influence municipal agencies in their decision making so that the infrastructures and services are adapted to the diverse capacities, realities, needs and preferences of all residents of all ages.
